This is the second consecutive year the Blue Raiders have received an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Middle Tennessee make its third trip to the NCAA Tournament after making its first appearance in 2000.

Middle Tennessee has played five teams (lowa State, Long Island, Missouri State, Oklahoma and Western Kentucky) in the 64-team NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders have a 5-1 record against teams in the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

Blue Raiders in League Play...

Middle Tennessee posted its best season in Sun Belt conference play since joining the league in 2000. The Blue Raiders ended the season 16-1; this is the most wins in Sun Belt Conference play by a Middle Tennessee team since joining the conference. The Blue Raiders clinched the East Division Sun Belt Conference title and the No. 1 seed in the conference tournament after defeating Western Kentucky 3-0 on Nov. 9.

Wins at Middle Tennessee...

Head coach Matt Peck has 106 wins at Middle Tennessee reaching the 100 wins milestone with two wins over South Alabama and Troy. In just four seasons, at the helm of the Blue Raiders Peck has an overall record of 106-28. In Sun Belt conference play, Peck has posted an impressive 49-11 record.

All-Conference Honors...

This season the Blue Raiders have only played two fifth game matches. Prior to Friday's 3-2 win over Louisville Middle Tennessee had not played a five-game match since Sept. 1 when it defeated Oregon State 3-2. Middle Tennessee is now 2-0 when a fifth game is required. Middle Tennessee has played ten matches this season that required a fourth game losing just one (Missouri State 9/9).

Middle Tennessee is currently on a 13 match win streak, which ties for the second longest in school history. Earlier in the season, Western Kentucky snapped an 11 match win streak for the Blue Raiders handing them their second loss of the season. The team fell to No. 18 Ohio State in the second round but posted a 27-8 overall record while finishing conference play in a three-way tie for first in the Sun Belt Eastern Division with a record of 14-3. The win in game one against OSU in the NCAA Tournament snapped a 30-game winning streak for the Buckeyes.

Middle Tennessee picked up an All-American honor under Peck in sophomore Ashley Adams. Adams earned the honor after being named First Team All-Conference, Most Valuable Player of the Sun Belt Tournament and All-South Region.

In just his second year, Peck led the Blue Raiders to their first Sun Belt Tournament Championship match appearance since joining the league. Middle Tennessee's No. 2 seed in the tournament in 2005 and 10-2 record in Sun Belt matches is the best mark in school history, and the Blue Raiders 28 wins is a tie for second-most wins in school history.

With Peck at the helm, Middle Tennessee received a Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year award in Alicia Lemau'u. It was also during Peck's watch that Ashley Adams became the first Blue Raider volleyball player in school history to be named AVCA National Player of the Week.

With 23 years of coaching experience, Peck has an overall career record of 615-222. Prior to arriving at Middle Tennessee in February 2004, Peck spent nine seasons at the University of North Alabama.

Blue Raiders credit outlook for success

When Middle Tennessee traveled to Louisville for the first round of the 2006 NCAA Volleyball Tournament, few people outside of Murfreesboro. Tenn., thought the Blue Raiders stood much of a chance against the Cardinals.

After all, MTSU was playing in the tournament for the first time since 1995 and just the second time in the program's history. The Cardinals, on the other hand, were making their ninth consecutive postseason appearance and 17th overall.

Louisville was intimidating at the net, averaging almost 6-foot-3, and was playing on its home court. MTSU had just one player taller than six-foot and had an average height of 5-foot-11.

But despite all the obstacles, the Blue Raiders came from behind to defeat the Cardinals in five games. The outcome should really not have surprised anyone because if there is one thing the Middle Tennessee volleyball team knows about, it's overcoming adversity.

Like any college team, the Blue Raiders deal with the everyday adversity that comes from being a studentath-lete.

Bumps and bruises, papers and exams, road trips and practices all come with the territory. But those challenges are nothing when compared to the handicaps faced by three of their teammates' relatives.

Lauren Adams, the 17-year-old sister of junior opposite hitter Ashley Adams, has been blind since birth.

What impresses Ashley the most about Lauren is her independence and courage. She goes to a public high school, she uses stacks of books to complete assignments and she runs through the house like she can see every possible obstacle.

"She doesn't need anybody's help," Ashley said. "She can ride a two-wheel bike. There is no way if I couldn't see where I was going would I get on a bike. She is fearless. Sometimes I don't believe she can't see. Her courage is really impressive."

Lauren attends matches with her parents, Julie and Steve, making the trip from Pickerington, Ohio, which is on the eastern fringe of Columbus. The sisters are now closer than ever and Ashley treasures having Lauren in the crowd.

"She loves coming to the matches," Ashley said. "She can tell what's going on, who gets the kills.

And with the crowd's energy and the music, she really gets into it. It's really great having her there.

"I'm so happy that she is in my life just because that keeps me level-headed. I don't get down and think my life is so hard. I look at her and think her life is going to be hard, but she has such a positive outlook on everything."

Twyla and Ken Clark, grandparents of sophomore setter Leslie Clark, have been deaf all of their lives, but that doesn't slow them down. They make the trip from Olathe, Kan., for nearly every match and have even joined the Blue Raiders on the road.

Leslie was learning to sign before she could speak with her grandparents, and now her teammates are learning to sign so they can communicate with the Clarks.

"They really appreciate what my grandparents go through," Leslie said. "My teammates think it's so cool that I can talk to my grandparents from across the gym. They want to learn words and phrases so they can talk to them. My teammates try to sign during practice. They try to make stuff up, but they're not very good."

From an athletics standpoint, Al Meads' story might be the most inspirational.

Al, the father of sophomore outside hitter Ashley Mead, broke his leg playing basketball when he was 9, and two years later he had to have the leg amputated. But instead of focusing on what was lost, he focused on the future and went on to excel in track and field.

Competing in the long jump at the Paralympics, Mead won the gold medal in 1998 in Barcelona and the silver medal in 1992 in Seoul.

"Ever since I was born, my dad was my motivation," Ashley said. "If I or anybody had to have their leg amputated, they would probably think that their athletic career would be over. He had a bigger and better vision for himself and he didn't let it slow him down. He still conquered his dream of being a great athlete."

Al continues to stay involved in athletics as a member of The President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, running the sports outreach program at New Hope Baptist Church in Fayetteville, Ga., and traveling around the country to give motivational speeches.

Middle Tennessee coach Matt Peck knew almost immediately the three players who grew up in these unique situations would be special additions to the program. What he didn't anticipate was the positive impact their families would have on everyone associated with the program.

"I thought to myself these are going to be great kids to have," Peck said. "They've been around people with severe handicaps, so they've been exposed to some adversity in their lives. They won't take good things for granted.

"All of these people involved -- Al Mead, Lauren Adams and Ken and Twyla Clark -- are just awesome people with incredible outlooks on life. I don't think there could be any more upbeat people than those individuals. I would like to think we have all learned something from being exposed to those individuals."

What the Blue Raiders learned was no matter what obstacles they may encounter, they have the ability to succeed if they work together to accomplish their goals for the 2007 season.

Middle Tennessee will take a 17-1 overall record and a 4-0 mark in the Sun Belt Conference into this weekend's home matches against Arkansas-Little Rock and Arkansas State.

The Blue Raiders won 10 straight matches to open the season, including back-to-back victories over Big 12 opponents and one against a Pac-10 school in a span of seven days. Middle Tennessee defeated Iowa State on its home court in four games, then swept No. 21 Oklahoma and overcame a two-game deficit to beat Oregon State on consecutive days at the University of Idaho Classic.

With Clark out of the lineup because of a concussion, the Blue Raiders dropped a four-game decision to Missouri State. But Middle Tennessee bounced back with its current seven-match winning streak and has yet to lose a single game in conference play.

"We're not as big as some of the teams we play, but we play at a very high level, as far as vertically," Peck said. "Ashley Asberry may be the smallest middle we see all year at 5-foot-9, but she can hit it over anybody."

The Blue Raiders know they'll need to continue to play at their highest level to earn a second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament; although they've been in and out of the top 25 this season, it's highly unlikely a team from the Sun Belt will be invited as an at-large selection.

"Obviously, we're looking toward the NCAA Tournament again, but we can't overlook our own conference," Adams said. "We kind of came out of nowhere and just surprised a lot of teams, so we don't want that to happen to us. We want to get to the NCAAs and make it farther than we did last year."

Road matches at Denver, Florida International and Western Kentucky, and the Sun Belt tournament are just a few of the obstacles between Middle Tennessee and its postseason goal.

Even if they come up short, the Blue Raiders will still appreciate the opportunity to compete.

"Observing my grandparents out in the community and how difficult it can be for them to communicate with people, it makes me realize that we really do have it easy," Clark said. "When it's all said and done, volleyball is just a game. People struggle with things during life and volleyball helps put things in perspective."

Volleyball coach gets 100th win

MTSU Dispatch

The MTSU volleyball team took care of business Saturday night, defeating Troy 3-0 (30-12, 30-23, 30-13).

The Lady Raiders improved to 28-2 overall and 15-1 in Sun Belt Conference play while Troy fell to 6-9 in league play and 15-16 overall.

It was a special night for MTSU as coach Matt Peck recorded his 100th win at MTSU. The Lady Raiders also have the most wins in Sun Belt Conference play since joining the league in 2000.

"It was a special night because sharing in those victories were seniors Megan, Alicia and Quanshell who have been here since my first year. It was fun for them also to celebrate their 100th win in the program. Not too many collegiate volleyball players get to say that. Hopefully we will get to add to that before it is all said and done." Peck said.

"We played very well tonight. Troy played Western Kentucky tough last night and I think we were ready to be challenged."

Junior Ashley Asberry led the Lady Raiders on both sides of the ball as she knocked down 12 kills with a .733 hitting percentage and four block assists.

"The Ashley's (Asberry and Adams) played great offensively and defensively," Peck said. "We were able to run our offense due to outstanding passing. Alicia, Ashley Waugh and Izabela did a great job of keeping us in system when Troy was serving."

As a team, MTSU had nine blocks as it held Troy to five. The Lady Raiders also had 51 kills for a .394 hitting percentage. Troy recorded just 24 kills with a .071 hitting percentage for the match.

The Lady Raiders dominated in game one never allowing Troy to get anything started as it took a 30-12 win.

MTSU spikers clinch division crown

MTSU Dispatch

MTSU clinched the Sun Belt Conference East Division volleyball title in dramatic fashion Friday night as it topped visiting rival Western Kentucky 3-0 (30-28, 30-24, 30-28).

The Lady Raiders (29-2, 16-1 SBC) entered the match seeking revenge after losing to Western Kentucky earlier in the season. MTSU has its first solo conference division title in two years after sharing the title with WKU in 2006.

This is the first time in eight seasons that Western Kentucky has not won or shared part of the East Division title.

"We had a great crowd tonight. It was amazing, half way through the match I looked around and just thought this is incredible. They were a huge factor tonight and the band was awesome. It was a good match i'm not going to say we played great match but they are a good team," MTSU coach Matt Peck said. "They beat us 3-0 earlier in the season. There was a lot on the line there with the No. 1 seed in the conference tournament. I am very proud of our players."

The night began on a high note as Peck was honored for his 100th win at MTSU before play began. The Lady Raiders never looked back even though Western Kentucky proved to be a tough opponent.

"We had a long road to get here. I think things happen for a reason. I don't know that we would have played this match tonight had we been down to them and playing for something here like we did tonight for the No. 1 seed," Peck said.

Junior Ashley Adams guided the team through out the night as she recorded 18 kills, 11 digs and three blocks assists.

Sophomore Lesile Clark led the team behind the scenes with 39 assists, 11 digs and three block assists.

Defensively, junior Ashley Asberry and freshman Izabela Kozon each had five block assists in the match. Also on defense the Lady Raiders had a total of 46 digs in the match led by Clark and Adams.

As a team, MTSU held the Lady Toppers to a .179 hitting percentage. The Lady Raiders had just three more kills in the match with 46. MTSU also had more blocks on the night with 11 while Western had just four.

Western Kentucky started the match strong taking a 9-5 lead to begin the match. MTSU rebounded to tie the game and kept it close to the end.

With the game fied at 27, the Lady Raiders took a 29-27 lead on a kill by Adams and then won the game after a service error by Western's Hayley Koeffer.

Game two started much the same way as the two teams traded points before the Lady Raiders took a 14-12 after a kill by Kozon. The Lady Raiders continued to pull away and took a four-point lead after a kill by Adams, 23-19.

Western Kentucky recorded a service ace to begin game three but the Lady Raiders rebounded jumping out to a 9-5 lead. The two teams traded points but the Lady Raiders took a 27-25 lead on a kill by Adams. Western Kentucky tried to pull ahead to force a fourth game but was unable to as Asberry ended the match with a kill.

MTSU will be back in action Thursday, when it begins play at the Sun Belt tournament at Denver University. The Lady Raiders will be the No. 1 seed and will face the No. 8 seed Thursday at noon.

"We needed a match like this. We have had some sleepy matches since the last Western match and now. We haven't played any of the top teams except Florida International. We needed a match like this just to get ready for the conference tournament. I am confident going out to Denver that we are going to play some great ball," Peck said. "We are an experienced team with this. This is our third conference tournament and we have made the last two finals. I would be really disappointed if we weren't playing for the championship and an NCAA bid."
