

Wednesday Baseball Moved to Murfreesboro

First pitch against Southern Illinois set for 2 p.m.

March 4, 2008 · MT Media Relations

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Middle Tennessee's baseball game with Southern Illinois set for Wednesday, March 5 has been moved to Reese Smith Field at 2 p.m. Due to the girl's Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association basketball tournament being held in the Murphy Athletic Center those parking in the Greenland Dive lot will be charged. Free parking will be available at the midget lot on Faulkinberry Drive and in the S-curve lot next to the nursing building. Admission to all baseball games is $5. The ticket window opens two hours before game time and gates open one and a half hour before the first pitch. Dick Palmer will have the play-by-play of Wednesday's game on 88.3 WMTS FM and www.goblueraiders.com.

Printed on August 2, 2014

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/30487>