SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS: The Redhawks enter the game winners of six of their last 10 games including a series in a non-conference doubleheader last weekend over Tennessee State. Middle Tennessee and North Texas are meeting for the 40th time in school history, with the Redhawks holding a 25-14 advantage. The last meeting between the teams occurred on March 20, 2007, when Middle Tennessee defeated Southeast Missouri 3-2 in Murfreesboro, Tenn. SEMO holds a 17-18 record including a 7-7 mark in Ohio Valley Conference play.

CHATTANOOGA LADY MOCS: The Lady Mocs hold a 29-14, including a perfect 6-0 record in Southern Conference play. They enter the today's doubleheader winners of 11 straight with their last loss coming on March 9th at the USF Under Armour Showcase against Penn State. They have built a formidable home record, winning nine straight games at Frost Stadium, with their last defeat coming way back on March 2nd against Big East-foe Connecticut. Middle Tennesee is matching up against the Lady Mocs for the 15th time in school history. UTC holds a 13-2 advantage against the Blue Raiders. The last meeting occurred on April 25, 2006, when MT fell 7-5 to the Chattanooga, Tenn. team.

ABEL'S AWARD: Sophomore outfielder Corrie Abel was named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week on April 7, 2008, after leading the Blue Raiders to a series victory against conference-foe North Texas. Abel batted .364, including two game-winning hits, in three games against the Mean Green. She led the team in homeruns (1), RBI (5), totals bases (7) and slugging percentage (.636) in the series. The Shorewood, III. native went 2-for-5 as the Blue Raiders won 8-4 in the first game of the series, driving in what proved to be the game-winning runs in the 6th inning with her first career grand-slam homerun. She went 1-for-2 with a run scored and walk in the second game before finishing off a Middle Tennessee 7th inning rally with the game-winning a RBI single to right field in the deciding game of the series. The Joliet West HS product leads the team on the season in batting average (.359), hits (37), total bases (54), slugging percentage (.524), on-base percentage (.405) and fielding percentage (1.000).

SIGNATURE STEALS: The Blue Raiders stole two bases over the weekend in an effort to surpass last season's recordbreaking total of 111. The 2007 team ranked 12th nationally with 1.85 stolen bases per game. The team's swipes were the third-most in a single-season in school history. Ashley Cline led the Sun Belt with 32 stolen bases, second most in a single season in school history. The Mt. Juliet, Tenn., native was 25th nationally with 0.56 stolen bases per game. The second-year player stole one base over this weekend to make it 44 in her career and cement her spot in sixth place all-time in school history, four ahead of former Blue Raider Steffi Silva. Cline currently leads the 2008 squad with 12 swipes in 14 attempts. She ranks third in the Sun Belt with seven steals in conference play.

POWER PLAYERS: Junior Martha Davis leads the team with five home runs on the season, including a couple two weeks ago in a series sweep of mid-state rival Austin Peay. She is currently occupies fifth place in the career home run list with 12 homeruns. Fellow Blue Raider Whitney Darlington is in eighth place on the all-time home run list. Corrie Abel nailed a game-winning grand slam, the first of her career, in Middle Tennesee's 8-4 win over North Texas on Saturday afternoon.

ACES WILD: Sophomore Lindsey Vander Lugt continues to make her mark on the school record books in just her second season. She is currently tied for fifth place in school history for career win with former Blue Raiders Jill Booth (1994-97) and Jaclyn Story (1997) for sixth place. She is already ranked in the Top 10 of 19 other pitching records for both a season and a career. Among these include Vander Lugt's schoolrecord 38 starts during the 2007 campaign. She has made 19 starts this season, going 10-10. Earlier this season, the lefty recorded the fourth longest streak in school history for consecutive innings without a walk. Her 24.3 inning mark over five games from February 23-28 puts her just shy of Jennifer Martinez's (1999-02) 27.0 innings the top spot. The Sophomore is currently tops in the Sun Belt Conference with a 1.53 ERA in conference play.

DECISIVE DEFENSE: Blue Raiders have continued their stellar defensive play from the 2007 season in which they ranked 29th nationally with 0.38 double plays per game and 100th nationally with a .961 fielding percentage. Ashley Cline leads the squad with 74 assists.

BATTING AROUND: Senior Whitney Darlington (.311, 10th) and Sophomore Corrie Abel (.357, t8th) both came into this season ranked on the career batting average charts. Abel ranks eighth in the Sun Belt Conference with a .359 batting average in 103 appearances at the plate.

THE WEATHER EFFECT: The Blue Raiders have had 12 games cancelled or postponed this season due to inclement weather. The squad lost one game in the Crimson Classic and their entire schedule in the Buzz Classic. They had one conference game cancelled against #17 Louisiana-Lafayette because of rain. It will not be rescheduled. MT's doubleheader on April 3rd against local rivals Tennessee State, originally scheduled for March 19 but postponed due to poor weather conditions, was delayed for a second time due to inclement weather. A make-up date has not been determined.

> NEVAR'S NEWEST: Thus far in 2008, Head Coach Sue Nevar has played just two teams she previously matched up against during her 11 year coaching career. The Blue Raiders defeated the Southern Illinois Salukis 6-0 and took two of three from SBC foe Louisana-Monroe to improve her record against those teams to 5-2.

> DEFEATING RANKED FOES: The Blue Raiders have played six games against teams receiving votes in the USA Today/NFCA Poll, going 1-5. Their sole win came against the Southern Illinois Salukis at the Middle Tennessee Classic earlier this season. The Blue Raiders went 2-4 against ranked opponents in 2007, with each loss coming by four runs or less.
