Holt's Professional Debut Set for CSS Airing Game will be re-broadcast this Sunday

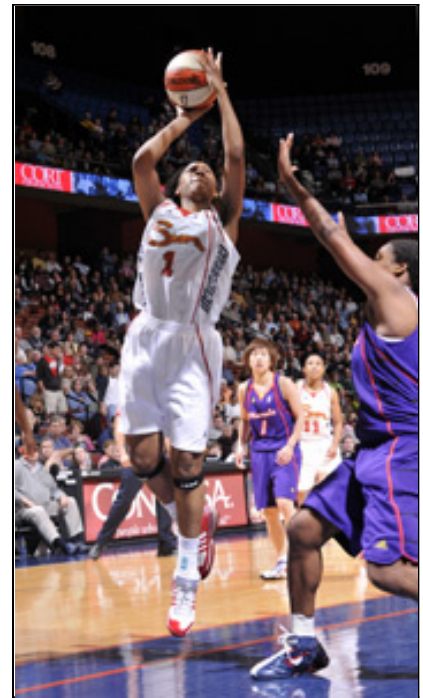

MT Media Relations

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Former All-American Amber Holt's professional debut with the Connecticut Sun may be seen this Sunday at 11 a.m. CT in the middle Tennessee area on Comcast Sports Southeast, Cable Channel 27.

Those outside the Nashville market may see the game live when the Sun take on the Atlanta Dream on Saturday at 3 p.m. CT at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. The game will re-air Sunday on CSS at 11 a.m. CT. It is the regular season opener for both teams.

Holt averaged 7.7 points per game in three exhibition contests, including 15 points versus Phoenix on May 4.

The Sun is also set to play on ESPN2 on Tuesday, May 27, versus Indiana at 6 p.m. CT. Connecticut's projected starting lineup for this weekend includes Georgia product Cori Chambers as well as former Memphis standout Tamika Whitmore.
