Then Barrett doubled down the left field line bringing in McDade from third to add another run in the inning. Western Kentucky answered with two runs of its own cutting the Blue Raiders lead to one with two outs. Middle Tennessee had two errors prior to each run scoring as the two runners stole second and then advanced to third on errors by Box and Dennis. Hudson broke the tie in the third with his sacrifice fly to left field allowing Bishop to score from third and put the Blue Raiders back on top 4-3.
