

October 4, 2008

McCann falls at ITA All-American Peers will begin qualifying round on Monday

MT Athletic Communications

Junior Alex McCann began play at the ITA All-American Championships on Saturday. ()

TULSA, Okla. - Junior Alex McCann began play at the ITA All-American Championships on Saturday.

McCann fell to Kentucky's Patrick Bandy 6-1, 6-0 in the second round of pre-qualifying. McCann received a bye in the first round of play.

McCann and teammate sophomore Richard Cowden are out of the ITA All-American Championships because they do not qualify for Lucky Loser status.

Lucky Losers are selected for qualifying and main draws in order of the highest seeds who lose in the final qualifying rounds.

Sophomore John Peers will compete for the Blue Raiders in the qualifying rounds of the ITA All-American Championships as he automatically qualified. The qualifying rounds begin on Monday, Oct. 6 and will run through Wednesday, Oct. 8.

Printed on November 20, 2009

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/34463>