Friends turn foe when Arkansas State battles Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis and Arkansas State Head Coach John Brady have a longstanding relationship that covers three decades but they will be foes when their teams play Thursday. It will mark the first time they have coached against one another. Davis was Brady's associate head coach for five seasons at LSU (1998-02) before Davis was named head coach at Middle Tennessee. LSU won the SEC Championship and reached the Sweet 16 in 2000. Brady was a graduate assistant for Mississippi State Head Coach Kermit Davis Sr., in 1976 and assisted Kermit Jr.'s, high school basketball team. Davis and Brady served as assistants on Bob Boyd's Mississippi State staff in 1983-84 and both coaches served as assistants under Tim Floyd.

Don't leave early when these teams meet

Middle Tennessee owns a slim 11-10 advantage against Arkansas State in a series that began in 1947-48 but the series has swung in the Blue Raiders' favor under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Arkansas State won five of seven non-conference meetings before the Blue Raiders joined the SBC in 2000-01, and Middle Tennessee has won nine of 14 match-ups between the teams as league members. Davis is 8-2 against Arkansas State, including a 4-1 mark at Murphy Center. Although the Blue Raiders have won 80 percent of their games against Arkansas State with Davis at the helm, most have come down to wire as eight have been decided by nine points or less including five by three points or less and two in overtime.

Brady in elite company at Murphy Center

Only a handful of coaches who have experienced coaching in the Final Four have coached against Middle Tennessee at Murphy Center. Arkansas State Head Coach John Brady will become the first since New Mexico State's Lou Henson in 2003-04. Henson reached the Final Four with Illinois and New Mexico State. Brady guided LSU to the Final Four in 2006. Other notable Final Four coaches who have coached against Middle Tennessee at Murphy Center include Hugh Durham (Georgia), Roy Williams (Kansas) and Bill Guthridge (North Carolina).

Yates has enjoyed best games vs. Arkansas State

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates has enjoyed several memorable performances but two of his best efforts have occurred in two career meetings against Arkansas State. Yates produced the second-highest scoring output of his career with 28 in an 89-86 overtime win at Arkansas State last season in one of his best all-around games. Yates played the entire 45 minutes in the overtime win, connected on 12-of-14 field goals, including 4-of-5 from 3-point range and collected eight rebounds. He scored what was then a career-high 23 points against Arkansas State in 2006-07 - his freshman campaign. In two career games against Arkansas State, Yates is averaging 25.5 points, 7.0 rebounds, shooting 75 percent (21-of-28) from the field, 75 percent (6-of-8) from beyond the 3-point line and 75 percent (3-of-4) from the free-throw line.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders On the Air

All Middle Tennessee basketball games may be heard on 106.7-FM The Fan, as well as WGNS 1450-AM, 100.5-FM, and 101.9-FM. All Blue Raider broadcasts also are carried on the web at GoBlueRaiders.com. Nine-time SEC Broadcaster of the Year Charlie McAlexander begins his second season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-by announcer in 2008-09, with Chip Walters providing color analysis. McAlexander won the prestigious Lindsey Nelson Award in 2006 and he is the only announcer in SEC history to be named Sportscaster of the Year at four different league schools in four different states (Mississippi, Vanderbilt, Kentucky and South Carolina.) McAlexander was elected to the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) Board of Directors in 1993 and he was named President of the association in 1995.

Blue Raiders reverse fortunes, enjoy SBC success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the fourth-highest win percentage (58 percent) and the fourth-most wins (66) among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined. Only WKU, Louisiana-Lafayette and South Alabama have more wins against league teams since the start of the 2002-03 season.

Blue Raiders among SBC's best teams winning on road

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the SBC has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 28 league road wins since - second most of any SBC member during his seven seasons leading the program. Only South Alabama (31) has more. The Blue Raiders have won eight of their last 12 SBC road games and twice ended home league win steaks of 10 games or more (at WKU - 2004, at South Alabama - 2008).

Kermit Davis vs ...

Kermit Davis File

In his seventh at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The Blue Raiders averaged 17 wins in Davis' first six seasons, which is the second-best wins average after six seasons in program history. The Blue Raiders are one of three current league members to play in multiple SBC Championship games during this six-year span (2003, 2008). Davis earned his 100th win as Middle Tennessee's head coach when the Blue Raiders upset South Alabama in the semifinals of the 2008 SBC Championships. He became the second fastest to 100 wins among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches, reaching the milestone in 182 games. Davis is third on the all-time wins list with 111.

Davis notches milestone win

Head coach Kermit Davis became the second-fastest to reach 100 wins at Middle Tennessee when the Blue Raiders upset South Alabama, 82-73, in the semifinals of the 2008 Sun Belt Championships. Davis reached the milestone in his 182nd career game. The 100 wins under Davis in his first six seasons represent the best six-year total for the program since 1988-93 (105 wins). The Blue Raiders have averaged 17 wins in Davis' first six seasons, which is the second-best wins average for any Middle Tennessee coach after six seasons.

Davis among coaching leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. He currently has 111 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.555) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis secures career win 225

Kermit Davis secured his 225th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat Denver, 68-50 (1/5/08) at Murphy Center. Davis owns 182 wins in his 11th season at the Division I level and he won 66 in three years as a junior college head coach. He currently has 248 career victories as a head coach.

Davis among Sun Belt's all-time winningest coaches

Middle Tennessee coach Kermit Davis is second in alltime victories among active Sun Belt coaches with 56, trailing only Ronnie Arrow in his second stint at South Alabama. Overall, Davis is ninth among the league's all-time winningest coaches in Sun Belt play with 56 victories. Next on the list is former WKU coach Darrin Horn with 57 wins. The all-time Sun Belt wins leader is Gene Bartow, who won 111 games during his 12 seasons at former conference member UAB. These totals only include regular-season conference wins.

Middle Tennessee among SBC's best under Davis

Middle Tennessee is one of three league members (WKU, Louisiana-Lafayette) to play in multiple SBC Championship games (2003, 2008) since 2003, and it is just one of three SBC members (WKU, South Alabama) to reach the quarterfinals in each of the last six years. Middle Tennessee and WKU are the only SBC schools to reach the league's semifinals five times in the last six years.

Yates becomes 28th Blue Raider with 1,000-plus points

Middle Tennessee junior forward became the 28th player in program history with 1,000-plus career points with 21 against UT-Martin (12/15). Yates needed 14 entering the game and scored a team-high 21 to reach 1,007 career points, moving past Charles Harmening (1,006) for 27th on the all-time scoring list. Yates reached the milestone with the second of two free throws with 7:43 remaining.

Kanaskie reaches 1,000 points, makes history

Senior guard Kevin Kanaskie became the 29th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points with 19 in the win at North Texas. The State College, Pa., native, currently has 1,078 points - 23rd all-time. Kanaskie becomes the only player in Blue Raider basketball history with 1,000 points, 400 assists, 150 3-pointers, and 100 steals. He also joined teammate Desmond "Boogie" Yates in the 1,000-point club making them the first active Blue Raider teammates playing with 1,000-plus points since Warren Kidd and Robert Taylor in 1993.

1,000-point teammates rare for Blue Raiders

Blue Raiders Kevin Kanaskie (1,078) and Desmond "Boogie" Yates (1,183) are only the fourth Blue Raider teammates playing together while in the 1,000-point club and the first since Robert Taylor (1,622 points) and Warren Kidd (1,165) in 1993. The only other Middle Tennessee teammates playing with 1,000-plus points were Kerry Hammonds (1,616), Randy Henry (1,484) and Chris Rainey (1,426) in 1989, and Doug Shrader (1,094) and Render Carden (1,090) in 1956.

Kanaskie, Yates move up career scoring list

Kevin Kanaskie and Desmond Yates continue to move up the Middle Tennessee career scoring list. Yates enters the Arkansas State game 15th all-time with 1,183 points. He scored 14 at WKU to pass Harry Gupton (1,154), Kim Cooksey (1,160) and Warren Kidd (1,165). Not far behind is Kanaskie with 1,078 points which is 23rd all-time. Robert "Cateye" Taylor is the program's all-time leading scorer with 1,622 points.

Yates' scoring binges key victories

Desmond "Boogie" Yates has registered 22 games with 20-plus points in his career and the Blue Raiders are 17-5 in those games, including 7-1 this season. He has scored double figures in 60 of 82 career games (73 percent). He had a string of 15 consecutive double figure scoring games snapped with eight vs. Tennessee (11/21/08) after getting into early foul trouble. He has scored double figures in 36 of 38 overall. He has been the team's leading scorer in 40 of 82 career games.

Yates named CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major All-American

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates was been named to the CollegeInsider.com Preseason Mid-Major All-American team. He is the only SBC player selected to the 25-player list. Yates also earned honorable mention recognition from CollegeHoops.net on its Mid-Major Preseason All-American team. Yates also was named Blue Ribbon Magazine's SBC Preseason Player of the Year, and Lindy's Magazine named him the SBC's Best NBA Prospect.

Kanaskie among nation's best

Senior point guard Kevin Kanaskie ranks among the nation's best point guards according to the NCAA National Statistics. Kanaskie is 10th nationally in assist/turnover ratio at 2.97. His 4.9 assists per game rank 61st nationally in that category. Kanaskie dished out seven assists in Middle Tennessee's win vs. Troy and is one of three players in program history with 400 or more career assists. He has 454 and needs just nine to break Gerald Harris' all-time mark of 463.

"Boogie" Nights

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates, who is on pace to become the program's all-time leading scorer, has 22 career games with 20-plus points, including eight this season. Following is a game-by-game look at such games:

Davis selected to serve as chair of 08-09 Mid-Major Top 25 poll

Kermit Davis has been selected as chairman of the Top 25 voting panel for the Mid-Major Top 25 poll. The Mid-Major Poll is made up of teams from the following conferences: America East, Atlantic Sun, Big Sky, Big South, Big West, Colonial, Horizon, Independents, Ivy, Metro Atlantic, Mid-American, Mid-Eastern, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern, Southland, Southwestern, Summit League, Sun Belt, West Coast.

Blue Raiders' recent win streak longest win streak in 18 seasons

Middle Tennessee's recent seven-game win streak tied for seventh longest in program history. It matched the longest win streak at Middle Tennessee since 1990-91. Middle Tennessee teams also fashioned seven-game win streaks in 1990-91, 1986-87 and 1977-78.

Middle Tennessee remains atop SBC East; matches best conference start in 20 years

Middle Tennessee won its first five Sun Belt games to match the best conference start in 20 years before suffering a 63-61 setback at WKU. The Blue Raiders, preseason favorites to win the SBC East, started 5-0 in SBC games for the first time since joining the league in 2000-01 with two of the wins coming on the road. The 5-0 mark also equaled Middle Tennessee's best conference start since 1988-89 when the Blue Raiders began OVC play with a 5-0 mark. The last Blue Raider team to start league play 6-0 was the 1986-87 squad. The best conference start ever is 1974-75 when the Blue Raiders began OVC play with a 9-0 worksheet. The 5-0 mark equaled the fourth best conference start in program history. Middle Tennessee completed its round of games vs. five SBC East foes with a 4-1 mark.

Players chasing career marks

Several Blue Raiders are chasing career records and milestones in 2008-09. Senior guard Kevin Kanaskie is closing in on Gerald Harris' career assists record that has stood for almost 20 years. Kanaskie is second on the career list with 454 helpers and needs 10 to set a new standard. He also is third all-time for 3-point field goals with 182 and needs 41 to break Robert Taylor's mark of 222. Kanaskie also is sixth all-time for free-throw percentage (.801) and also is on pace to set the all-time record for games played and most minutes played during a four-year career. Senior center Theryn Hudson's .605 field goal percentage is second all-time and he trails only Warren Kidd (.664) for the top spot. Desmond Yates is sixth on the career field goal percentage list with a .569 clip. Hudson's 61 career blocks are fourth on the career list. Kidd owns the all-time mark with 185 blocks in a three-year career. Kanaskie joined teammate Desmond Yates and in the 1,000-point club this season with 19 points at North Texas. Yates (1,183) and Kanaskie (1,078) are among the Top 25 all-time scorers in program history.

Kanaskie major source of Blue Raider offense

Senior point guard Kevin Kanaskie has been responsible for producing a bulk of Middle Tennessee's offense since the end of his freshman season but a breakdown of the numbers further demonstrate his value to the Blue Raiders. Since the start of 2006-07 - Kanaskie's sophomore season - he has been responsible for 32 percent of the team's offense if you credit a minimum of two points for each of his 365 career assists during this span. When you combine Kanaskie's points scored with two points per assist he has been responsible for 1,728 of the team's 5,463 points - or 32 percent - since 2006-07. Kanaskie is responsible for 30 percent of the team's offense this season. He represented 27 percent in 2007-08 and a career-best 38 percent in 2006-07.

Hudson to redshirt in 2008-09; Boyd undergoes surgery

Center Theryn Hudson (foot) will take a redshirt season in 2008-09 and return for his senior season with the Blue Raiders in 2009-10. Hudson, a three-year starter, underwent offseason foot surgery and had a setback shortly after his return to practice in November. Hudson saw limited action during early season games but was only able to play five minutes or less in three of the seven in which he played. Freshman guard Antwaun Boyd has underwent season-ending surgery and also is out for the season. Boyd suffered a dislocated shoulder in the team practice the day prior to the start of the Basketball Travelers Tip-Off Classic.

Blue Raiders displaying their defensive swagger

A strong defensive mentality and tenacity has been a Middle Tennessee trademark under Head Coach Kermit Davis and the Blue Raiders have proven to be a stingy unit during the 2008-09 season. Middle Tennessee has held 10 of 18 opponents to 65 points or less this season and they are 8-2 in those games with the only losses being a 65-57 setback at Vanderbilt and a 63-61 setback at WKU. The Blue Raiders have held eight opponents to less than 40 percent shooting from the field and they are 8-0 in those games.

High-scoring Blue Raiders lighting up scoreboard

Middle Tennessee has scored 80 or more points six times this season and it is 6-0 in those games. Middle Tennessee scored a season-high 94 points vs. Trevecca and followed that with 80 in a win vs. Houston Baptist. The Blue Raiders also scored 80-plus against SIU-Edwardsville (80), Troy (81), North Texas (89), and South Alabama (82). They are 35-1 under Head Coach Kermit Davis when scoring 80 or more, including wins in 20 straight contests. The only time they failed to win when scoring 80 or more was an 85-83 overtime setback at WKU (2/24/05).

Enjoying a breakout on the boards

Despite playing without 6-foot-10 starting center Theryn Hudson (last year's leading rebounder), Middle Tennessee has more than held its own on the boards. The Blue Raiders have out-rebounded opponents 11 times in 18 games. The Blue Raiders have 45 or more rebounds in five games. The Blue Raiders had 50 rebounds, including 19 offensive caroms, against SIU-Edwardsville. It marked the most rebounds for the Blue Raiders since pulling 54 against Tennessee Wesleyan, Dec. 2, 2004. Middle Tennessee had 46 rebounds (17 offensive) against Houston, grabbed 46 (13 offensive) vs. Troy, and 45 (16 offensive) vs. Norfolk State. They also had 45 rebounds vs. North Texas.

Haddock making bid for Newcomer of Year

Junior transfer Montarrio Haddock continues to blossom as he adjusts to the Division I level in his first season at Middle Tennessee after spending his first two collegiate seasons as one of the all-time leading scorers in Brunswick CC history. He is averaging 10.4 points and 5.1 rebounds in the team's last eight games. Haddock earned his second career start vs. SIU-Edwardsville and responded with career highs for points (19), rebounds (9), field goals (8) and minutes (24). He earned a second straight start vs. Troy and totaled 10 points and four rebounds in 12 minutes. He scored 13 points and led the team with eight rebounds vs. Belmont. Haddock is averaging 8.9 points and a team-best 5.4 rebounds in an average of 18.2 minutes per game. He has 46 offensive rebounds and has pulled four or more boards in 14 of 18 games. He also has scored in all 18 games as a Blue Raider, including eight with double figures. He has scored double figures in six of 10 overall.

Any day of the week will do

Middle Tennessee's basketball team already has played on all seven days of the week this season. The Blue Raiders have played five times on Saturday, and three times each on Sunday, Monday and Thursday. They have played twice on Wednesday and Friday, and one each once on Tuesday. They are unbeaten on Sunday (3-0) and have one loss on Saturday (3-1).

Green picks up where he left off as offensive threat

Senior guard Demetrius Green has been one of Middle Tennessee's top sources of offense since the midway point of the 2007-08 season - his first as a Blue Raider. Green has scored double figures in 22 of 25 games dating to last season. Green has scored double figures in 37 of 48 career games overall and he has led Middle Tennessee in scoring 11 times. He started his senior season in the same manner in which he ended his junior campaign. Green is averaging 11.9 points and 3.8 rebounds. He debuted for the 2008-09 season vs. Tennessee and responded with 17 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the field, despite playing the second half on a hobbled ankle. He followed that performance with 15 points and seven rebounds - both game highs - at Vanderbilt. He scored the game-winning basket with 2.4 seconds remaining to lead Middle Tennessee to a 59-57 SBC win vs. Florida Atlantic (01/08/09) to put the Blue Raiders in sole possession of first in the early-season SBC East race and also hit the game-winner - a 3-pointer with 38 seconds remaining - to lift the Blue Raiders to a 68-63 win vs. FIU.

Taking advantage of charity

After realizing some early-season struggles at the free-throw line, Middle Tennessee players have made the most of their trips to the charity stripe - particularly during the recent seven-game win streak. The Blue Raiders connected on 85.7 percent (12-of-14) of their free throw opportunities at UALR. Calvin O'Neil had a streak of 16 straight makes snapped against FIU but has made 20 of 23 overall. Kevin Kanaskie has connected on 37 of 40. Eric Allen has made six straight Montarrio Haddock has converted 10 of 12 attempts. Desmond Yates has knocked down 15 of 18 and is shooting 77.8 percent from the line this season. Kanaskie is shooting a team-best 82.8 percent this season and his career 80.1 percentage is sixth best all time at Middle Tennessee.

Johnson contributes in many ways

Senior guard Nigel Johnson is regarded as one of the fastest guards in the Sun Belt and his play ignites Middle Tennessee's up-tempo offense. Even though Johnson's offensive play-making is his greatest attribute for the Blue Raiders, he has proven to be a solid all-around player in his two-plus seasons. He notched his 500th career point at Vanderbilt and has 582 career points entering the UALR game. Johnson is tied with Greg Joyner for 10th on the all-time assists list at Middle Tennessee with 250. Johnson also has 73 career steals and needs eight more to break into the Top 15 all-time in that category. He also is a 78 percent free-throw shooter and has connected on 36 percent of his 3-point field goal attempts.

Johnson, Kanaskie dangerous duo on perimeter

Middle Tennessee's backcourt tandem of Nigel Johnson and Kevin Kanaskie has been strong all season and was particularly strong in consecutive games vs. Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Johnson and Kanaskie combined for 18 assists and three turnovers in the two games. Kanaskie had no turnovers in the two-game stretch and has dished out 52 assists and has just 14 turnovers in the first nine games. Johnson has 25 assists and 16 turnovers in seven games. Tennessee's touted pressure did not hamper Johnson or Kanaskie as the Blue Raiders had just nine turnovers. Johnson and Kanaskie combined for 12 assists and two turnovers in 76 minutes.

Blue Raiders sweep Travelers Tip-Off Tourney

Middle Tennessee put together an impressive run to capture the championship of the Basketball Travelers Tip-Off Tournament in Springfield, Mo., Dec. 20-22. The Blue Raiders beat UC-Irvine (65-52), Norfolk State (77-56) and host Missouri State (63-51) to sweep the event. It marked the first time Middle Tennessee had swept a three-game in-season tournament since 1956 when it won the Capital City Tournament and it represented only the second time in school history that the Blue Raiders swept a three-game event. The holiday tournament was Middle Tennessee's second such title in four years under Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders shared the San Juan Shootout with Auburn in 2004. Middle Tennessee's scoring margin in the tournament was plus-10 and it won each of the three games by double digits. The Blue Raiders allowed just 53 points per game and held opponents to 38 percent shooting combined for the tournament.

Yates garners MVP honors; Green All-Tourney

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates was named Most Valuable Player of the Basketball Traveler's Tip-Off Tournament and senior guard Demetrius Green was named to the All-Tournament team after helping lead Middle Tennessee to the championship and a three-game sweep of the field. Yates averaged 20.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and shot 70 percent (28-of-40) from the field. He scored 22 in two of the three wins. Green averaged 14 points and shot 55 percent (16-of-29) but he made his mark with two clutch 3-pointers late to seal the UC-Irvine lead, and he ignited the decisive run to start the second half vs. Norfolk State in the second game.

Yates named SBC Player of Week

Desmond "Boogie" Yates was named the SBC Player of the Week (12/15) after averaging 24 points and 8.5 rebounds in games vs. Troy and UT-Martin. Yates scored a season-high 27 points and had a career-high 13 rebounds in the win vs. Troy. He followed that with 21 points vs. UT-Martin to become the 28th member of the program's 1,000-point club.

80 is a good number

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee is 35-1 (97 percent) when it scores 80 or more points under Davis. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 20 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points. They are 69-16 under Davis when scoring 70 or more points.

Attendance mark vs. Tennessee second on single-game list

Middle Tennessee's game vs. No. 13 Tennessee drew a crowd of 11,802, which is the second-largest in school history and just five off the single-game attendance record. The game marked the first regular season visit to Murphy Center for in-state foe Tennessee and was sold out prior to gameday. The top two all-time attendance marks at Middle Tennessee have occurred under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Prior to his arrival in 2002 Middle Tennessee had one sellout since 1975. The single-game attendance mark is 11,807, vs. WKU.

Difficult to beat with the lead

Middle Tennessee has been solid playing with the lead under seventh-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 84-15 under Davis when they lead at the half, and they have won an astounding 88 percent (95-13) of the 108 games in which they have led with five minutes remaining.

Outshooting opposition a key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 93-13 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. They had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 OT setback to Toledo in 2006-07, despite shooting 58 percent. Middle Tennessee has won 65 of the last 76 games when it has a higher shooting percentage.

Backcourt draws rave reviews from Blue Ribbon Magazine

An experienced backcourt is part of the reason for optimism regarding Middle Tennessee basketball in 2008-09 and Blue Ribbon Magazine believes the Blue Raiders sport the best backcourt in the Sun Belt. In its rating of the league's top backcourts, Blue Ribbon listed Middle Tennessee first, followed by North Texas and Louisiana-Lafayette. The Blue Raiders return starting guards Kevin Kanaskie, Nigel Johnson and Demetrius Green from 2007-08.

Coaches peg Middle Tennessee team to beat in SBC East

Middle Tennessee was the overwhelming favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division in the Preseason Coaches Poll released at Media Days in October. The Blue Raiders received 11 of a possible 13 first-place votes and 76 total points to outdistance South Alabama, which was picked second with 60 points and received the remaining two first-place votes. WKU was picked third in the East with 52 points. The top three teams in the West Division - UALR, North Texas, and Louisiana-Lafayette - were separated by one point in preseason balloting.

Yates SBC Preseason Player of Year; Kanaskie named All-SBC

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates was voted Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year at the league's annual Media Days. Yates was an all-first team performer as a sophomore. He also was named to the All-SBC first team. Senior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the All-SBC second team.

Blue Raiders popular pick for publications

Middle Tennessee was picked as the preseason favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division by league coaches but national publications that release preseason polls also have jumped on the Blue Raider bandwagon. Middle Tennessee was voted the Sun Belt's preseason favorite by Blue Ribbon Magazine, Athlon, Lindy's, and Rivals.com. Blue Ribbon Magazine named Desmond Yates its preseason player of the year in the Sun Belt and placed him on the preseason All-SBC team. Yates also was named Preseason All-SBC by Lindy's and Athlon. Lindy's also named senior guard Kevin Kanaskie to its All-SBC second team. Additionally, Lindy's cited three Blue Raiders as being among the league's best players. The magazine named Yates the SBC's best NBA prospect; Kanaskie the league's best playmaker; and Calvin O'Neil the best defender.

Kanaskie enjoys strong start

Heralded guard Kevin Kanaskie set records, reached milestones and tied all-time Blue Raider greats with one of his best performances in a career filled with memorable ones against Trevecca. Kanaskie enjoyed his third career double double with 22 points and 11 assists. Kanaskie tied former great Duane Washington for the most career double-figure assist games in school history (4). The 11 assists tied for 13th most in a single game. He also tied the school record for 3-point field goal percentage (6-of-6).

Kanaskie takes unconventional approach for double doubles

The conventional double is points and rebounds but Middle Tennessee players have turned in nine such games dating back to 1985 using a different approach and Kanaskie has produced three of the nine. Kanaskie produced his fourth career double double with 22 points and 11 assists in the opener. Each of his double doubles has consisted of points and assists. Kanaskie narrowly missed a second straight double double with nine points and nine assists vs. Houston Baptist.

Extended 3-point line doesn't hurt record-setting Blue Raiders in opener

The NCAA extend the men's basketball 3-point line one foot to 20-feet, nine-inches in order to make the great equalizer in the sport a bit more difficult for the 2008-09 season. The added distance didn't hurt Middle Tennessee shooters in the opener. The Blue Raiders established a new single-game record for 3-point field goal percentage, scorching the nets to the tune of 66.7 percent (12-of-18) to best the previous mark of 64.7 (11-of-17) against UT-Martin during the 1999-00 season. Middle Tennessee shot 89 percent from beyond the arc in the opening half by knocking down eight of nine attempts. The eight treys tied for the second-most in one half in a single game.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 387 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

O'Neil enjoys successful comeback

Junior Calvin O'Neil returned to the court for Middle Tennessee one year after suffering a season-ending injury in the 07-08 opener and earned starts in 10 games to date, including eight straight. O'Neil is averaging 5.3 points, 3.6 rebounds and 1.3 steals. He has reached double figures three times this season, marking the 13th time he has produced double figures in his career. Middle Tennessee is 11-2 in those games.

What's in a name?

Junior forward Desmond Yates' nickname is "Boogie," which he says was given to him by his grandmother when he was 1-year-old. Yates isn't sure why his grandmother qave him the particular nickname but he has always liked it and prefers to go by "Boogie," as opposed to Desmond.

Sharing the wealth: Blue Raiders assist all but six baskets in win

Middle Tennessee players combined to assist a staggering 84 percent of the team's 38 field goals in their season-opening win. The Blue Raiders' 32 assists tied for the fifth most in a single game. Kevin Kanaskie led with 11 helpers. In fact, guards Kanaskie, Nigel Johnson, Eric Allen, and Demario Williams combined for 24 assists and just three turnovers for a 7-to-1 assist/turnover ratio.
