MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - On Friday, Middle Tennessee Director of Athletics Chris Massaro presented Gordon Ferguson of the Middle Tennessee Medical Center with a framed pink jersey from the 2008 "Think Pink" game between Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky. Middle Tennessee raised over $18,000 for cancer research through the auction of uniforms following the Lady Raiders' win over WKU last February before 6,968 fans.

Proceeds from the event were split between the WBCA/Kay Yow Fund and the Middle Tennessee Medical Center.

The 2009 Pink Zone game will be on Feb. 15 when the Lady Raiders host North Texas at 1 PM. Again this year, the women's team will wear pink uniforms.
