

February 24, 2009

Tickets on sale for Blue Raiders' first-round SBC home game

All seats for postseason game are general admission

Athletic Communications

()

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Tickets for Middle Tennessee's first round game in the SBC Championships are now on sale at the Middle Tennessee Ticket Office.

The Blue Raiders clinched a first-round home game with their win at Florida Atlantic last Saturday. Seeds and first-round opponents will be released after all league games are completed Saturday evening.

Middle Tennessee will play its first round game Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Murphy Center against an opponent yet to be determined. The game is not part of the season ticket package. Tickets are available at $12 each as set by the SBC Office. Students with a valid Middle Tennessee ID will be admitted free of charge. Student guest tickets will be available for $7 each.

Fans can reserve their seat by calling the MT Ticket Office at 1-888-YES-MTSU, or tickets also may be purchased via GoBlueRaiders.com, or by visiting the MT Ticket Office. All tickets for the first-round game are general admission.

Ticket packages for the tournament rounds held at the Summit Arena in Hot Springs, Ark., are also available from the MT Ticket Office. Call toll-free 1-888-YES-MTSU or order online through Ticketmaster.

Winners of the five first-round games will advance to Hot Springs, Ark., where the quarterfinals, semifinals and finals will be held.

Printed on November 21, 2009

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/37179>