Middle Tennessee won the Sun Belt tournament with a 3-1 win over ULM to earn the automatic bid to the NCAAs. It has been a big week for the Blue Raiders who first learned their fate in postseason action on Monday and then traveled to Louisville, Ky., on Wednesday afternoon in preparation for the weekend. It is the 14th overall appearance for Middle Tennessee in the NCAA tournament and it is the first time a squad has ever received a two seed. The last time the Blue Raiders went to the NCAA tournament was in 2004. The Blue Raiders will face Vanderbilt for the third time this season after splitting the two game series earlier in the year. National Recognition

Sophomore Bryce Brentz continued to be awarded for his outstanding sophomore campaign as he was named a Golden Spikes semi-finalist and Louisville Slugger First Team All-American earlier this week. Listen to all the action

Middle Tennessee's games will be on 88.3 FM in Murfreesboro throughout the regional as well as on the internet linked through goblueraiders.com. Coach's Grill on Broad Street in Murfreesboro will host listening parties for all Blue Raider games at the Louisville Regional. The Blue Raider Network broadcast will be piped through the in-house sound system and will offer a place for Middle Tennessee fans to gather and listen to the game together. The game will be broadcast on WMTS-

FM (88.3). Audio and video webcast links are available on GoBlueRaiders.com. Parking and Directions to Patterson Stadium

Due to multiple events hosted by both the University of Louisville and the city of Louisville fans are asked to use the following parking and driving directions for the weekend, specifically on Saturday, May 30. Parking will be available for free behind the Speed School off Third Street, near the corner of Eastern Parkway and Third Street. A free shuttle will transport fans to and from Jim Patterson Stadium. Limited parking for baseball is also available in the lot opposite Patterson Stadium at the corner of Second Street and Central Avenue near Wagner's Pharmacy. Digital Trimarc signs on the interstates will note the appropriate exits and signage will be available on the surface roads directing patrons to the parking lots. Fans are advised to use the following exits for the specific event they are attending to experience the best possible traffic flow to their respective parking areas. Traveling I-65
