

June 23, 2009

Baker selected as assistant soccer coach Louisville native joins Rhoden's staff for 2009

Athletic Communications

Michael Baker joins the soccer staff as an assistant coach for the upcoming 2009 campaign. (Bradley Lambert)

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Middle Tennessee head women's soccer coach Aston Rhoden announced Tuesday the addition of Michael Baker to his staff for the upcoming 2009 campaign.

"He is a great addition," Rhoden said. "We are really excited. He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge. He will help us enhance the success we have had as a program."

Baker recently completed his third year as an assistant coach at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La., helping to lead the Demons to a 9-9-2 mark last fall and 29-25-6 overall record during his tenure with Jimmy Mitchell's squad.

In 2006, the Demons' goalkeepers posted their best goals against average (0.93), allowing just 19 goals in 20 matches. Six of the 19 goals came during Southland Conference action. The team again allowed only six goals in league play during the 2008 campaign.

"I'm excited about the opportunity Aston and the Middle Tennessee athletic department has given me," Baker said. "I'm looking forward to continuing the winning tradition Aston has built in his program and keeping the Blue Raiders as one of the dominating teams in the Sun Belt Conference."

Prior to arriving at NSU, Baker served two years as an assistant coach at Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Fla., for both the Triton men's and women's programs. He held the interim head men's coaching title in spring 2006 in addition to being the academic advisor for the athletic department and its game management coordinator for all sports.

In addition to his collegiate coaching duties, Baker was a member of a four-person selection group in 2004 which chose the United States Jewish National Team which represented the USA in Israel at the July 2005 World Maccabi Games. The squad assembled captured the gold medal without a loss.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Baker began his collegiate career with his hometown Cardinals before transferring and graduating from Western Kentucky in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in agriculture with an emphasis in equine science and a minor in marketing.

He then took on the role of volunteer assistant with the Hilltoppers' women's team for two seasons where he was in charge of game promotions and helped plan and run the summer camps.

He has worked with several high schools and club teams, including the Countryside Lightning, a Nike Premier Club in St. Petersburg. He oversaw the 10U and 13U Girls Premier teams for the organization. Baker also has head coaching experience at Butler County High School, SKY Futbol Club and Mockingbird Valley Soccer Club.

Baker holds a USSF "C" and Brazilian "D" coaching licenses, as well as NSCAA Regional, NSCAA National Youth, NSCAA National and NSCAA Goalkeeper Level 1 and 2 diplomas.

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/39582>