

June 24, 2009

Brentz selected for 2009 USA Baseball National Team

One of 22 elite players picked

MT Athletic Communications

CARY, N.C. - Sophomore Bryce Brentz spent most of the 2009 season proving he was one of the best collegiate players in the country and on Wednesday he justified it when he was one of 22 players named to the USA Baseball National Team.

Sophomore Bryce Brentz was one of 22 players named to the USA Baseball National Team as announced by USA Baseball on Wednesday. (Kevin Glackmeyer/Troy Photography)

Complete USA Baseball National Team Roster

Brentz received the invitation to tryout for the team after posting impressive numbers and recommendations from a number of the nation's top coaches.

The Knoxville, Tenn., native collected a number of awards after his stellar season including six All-America honors, Sun Belt Player of the Year and a semi-finalist for the Golden Spikes award.

"I am just glad to have made the team because it is a great honor. Everyone who's here trying out are great players and competitors," Brentz said. "I think it helped being a two-way player. I plan to help them on the mound but I know my main focus is to hit."

Brentz and the USA Baseball National Team will begin play Thursday, June 25 with the National Team tour. The team will open the tour against Canada at 3 p.m. Brentz joins Dewon Brazelton as recent Blue Raiders to be named to a USA National team.

Printed on November 20, 2009

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/39619>