

September 20, 2009

Blue Raiders round out play at tourney

Weather delays play; Peers and Langley compete in singles

MT Athletic Communications

ATHENS, Ga. - The Blue Raiders played just two matches on Sunday at the Southern Intercollegiate Championships as weather once again hindered action in Athens.

In Division I singles, John Peers fell to Rhyne Williams of Tennessee 7-6 (5), 7-5 in the round of 32.

Matthew Langley defeated John Taylor of Memphis 6-2, 6-3 in Division II singles.

The Blue Raiders were scheduled to play two doubles matches but due to the continued inclement weather Division I and II doubles were cancelled.

Division III singles and consolation matches were also cancelled due weather conditions.

The Blue Raiders will be back in action Sept. 25-27 when they travel to Charlottesville, Va., to compete in the UVA Invitational.

John Peers was one of two Blue Raiders to play on Sunday at the Southern Intercollegiate Championships after play was delayed due weather conditions. ()

Printed on May 23, 2012

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/41112>