TULSA, Okla. - John Peer's run in the ITA All-American main draw ended in a three-set battle on Friday.

Peers lost a three-set heartbreaker to Stanford's Bradley Klian, seeded 14th in the tournament and in the ITA poll, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

"John had a great tournament. He can take a lot away from this experience knowing he can play with the 'big' boys," head coach David McNamara said.

The Blue Raiders will have next week off before competing at the Regional Indoors Qualifying in Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 22-26.
