Blue Raider women's basketball to appear twice on Sun Belt Network

Other game time changes announced

Athletic Communications

NEW ORLEANS - The Middle Tennessee women's basketball team will make two appearances, both on the road, as part of the Sun Belt Network package announced by the league office this week. The Blue Raiders also were showcased twice last season.

Middle Tennessee's Sun Belt Network season debut will be Jan. 24 at rival Western Kentucky. The tip-off time will remain as originally released at 2 p.m.

The Blue Raiders' road game at Florida Atlantic Feb. 27, the final regular-season contest, will also be broadcast. Tip for the game with the Owls is now at 11 a.m., a change from the original time of 4 p.m.

Middle Tennessee has also announced other game time changes. The home game Nov. 28 against Tennessee Tech is now set for 7:30 p.m. It was listed as TBA on all previous schedules.

The Blue Raiders road game at South Alabama Feb. 6, originally slated for 5:05 p.m., now is scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

Finally, Middle Tennessee's road game at ULM Jan. 20 has now been set for 7 p.m. It was previously listed as TBA on all previous schedules.

The Blue Raiders will make two TV appearances on the Sun Belt Network in 2009-10. ()
