Nigerian group seeks input, advice from MTSU

"Tennessee's Best" met Nigeria's best Oct. 13 as His Royal Majesty Emmanuel Adebayo, king of Emure Ekiti in Nigeria, brought a fact-finding group to MTSU for a day of inspections, conversations and collaborations for international education. During a weeklong U.S. visit with stops in several Tennessee cities, Adebayo and his associates met with Dr. Sidney A. McPhee and other university leaders for briefings on exchange opportunities for faculty, staff and students to help the kingdom expand its educational and economic options.
