

May 26, 2010

Peers falls at NAAs in heartbreaker

Junior represents Blue Raiders well

MT Athletic Communications

ATHENS, Ga. - Junior John Peers put on a valiant fight in the opening round at the NCAA Individual Championships but was unable to pull out the win.

Peers faced Baylor's Denes Lukacs on Wednesday morning falling in the first set 7-6 (6). The Melbourne, Australia native rallied in the second set winning 7-6 (5). Lukacs got the best of Peers in the final set of the match winning, 6-4.

Peers rounds out the 2010 season with an overall record of 29-9. In tournament action, he is 10-5. It was the second consecutive season Peers appearance in the NCAA Individual Championships as last season he and Robert McKenzie competed in the doubles portion.

---

Printed on May 23, 2012

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/46224>

Junior John Peers put on a valiant fight in the opening round at the NCAA Individual Championships but was unable to pull out the win. ()