MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - The Middle Tennessee men's and women's tennis programs have announced they will host the 24th Annual Wally Tidwell Pro-Am September 10-11 in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

The festivities begin Friday evening with appetizers at the Buck Bouldin Tennis Center and a celebration of Fred Niemeyer into the Blue Raider Hall of Fame. Events continue Saturday with the Pro-Am, followed by the Hall of Fame induction and tailgating prior to the Middle Tennessee football game against Austin Peay.

The Pro-Am begins with the women's portion at 8:30 a.m., followed by the men taking the courts at 11 a.m. Both groups will be allowed 30 minutes prior to their scheduled start time to warm up.

Blue Raider tennis alumni and local tennis enthusiasts who register for the weekend will be provided two tickets to the football game. Cost for the activities is $150 and includes all of the above events.

For more information, please contact head men's tennis coach Jimmy Borendame at (615) 898-2957 or mttennis@mtsu.edu or head women's tennis coach Melissa Schaub at (615) 898-5154 or mschaub@mtsu.edu.

Checks should be made payable to MTSU Pro-Am and mailed to:
