NEW ORLEANS – Middle Tennessee sophomore forward Ebony Rowe has been selected as the Jan. 2, 2012, Sun Belt Player of the Week the conference office announced Monday following a vote of the league's head coaches.

Rowe's honor, which included all games since Dec. 20, is her second of the season and sixth of her career, moving her into a tie with Chrissy Givens for third among all-time Blue Raiders for most in program history.

Middle Tennessee has now claimed 43 total accolades since joining the league in 2000-01, including 32 under head coach Rick Insell in the last six-plus years.

their seventh-straight conference opener under Insell.

The Lexington, Ky., native then powered Middle Tennessee to an upset home win against her hometown team by scoring 21 points, including 7-of-10 field goals and 7-of-8 free throws, while hauling in 12 rebounds against the Wildcats.

She then closed the set with a 12-point and game-high tying 11-rebound effort against South Alabama to cap 2011 in a Sun Belt Network televised broadcast.

The Blue Raiders will return to action at 5:15 p.m. Thursday when they travel to Troy, Ala., to face the Troy Trojans. Middle Tennessee's broadcast can be heard on the Blue Raider Network of WMOT (89.5 FM) and WGNS (1450 AM, 100.5 FM, 101.9 FM) with Dick Palmer handling play-by-play duties.
