

Tennis match in Miami cancelled

Blue Raiders to start four-match homestand Saturday

March 7, 2012 · Athletic Communications

MIAMI – Middle Tennessee women's tennis will not play at FIU Wednesday afternoon due to inclement weather in the Miami area. The contest was originally set to begin at Noon Central, but after a delay, the two teams decided to not square off due to rain.

The Blue Raiders will bring their 6-4 record back to Murfreesboro to begin a four-match homestand, starting at 11 a.m. Saturday against Murray State at the Buck Bouldin Tennis Center. The Racers are currently 4-4 this spring after dropping a 5-2 decision at Southern Illinois last Thursday.

Printed on April 19, 2014

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/59302>