PINEHURST, N.C. - Ashley Haggard carded a one-under 71, but it wasn't enough as the Middle Tennessee women's golf team recorded a 12-over round of 300 to finish the Pinehurst Challenge in 10th place (out of 16) on Course No. 6 (Par 72, 5,983 yards) at Pinehurst Golf Resort.

"Overall, we just left too many shots out there," head coach Chris Adams said. "Haggard played pretty well for us, but as a team we just let one or two holes keep us from having a good day. We need to avoid the big mistakes." The Blue Raiders ended the event with a 41-over 905. Karisa Akin entered the day in a tie for 13th, but shot a seven-over 79 to drop into a tie for 28th at 10-over in the 88-player field.

Ashley Haggard made a move in the opposite direction by recording the only Blue Raider round under par in the tournament, shooting a one-under 71 to tie for 39th at 12-over. Allie Knight also tied for 39th after posting a five-over 77. Olivia Love had the second-best MT round on the day with a two-over 74, moving up the board into a tie for 48 at 14-over, and Natalie Chrisopulos carded a six-over 78 to finish in a tie for 56th at 17-over. The Blue Raiders will look to get back on track next week when they hit the road for the annual UALR Women's Golf Classic, a tournament that's treated MT pretty well over the years. "We'll certainly have our hands full next week, but I'm looking forward to it," Adams said. "There will be a lot of conference schools there, and we'll need to have everyone firing on all cylinders. We're a lot better than what we showed this week." TEAM SCORES (of 16) 1. NC State - 286-285-294=865 (+1) 2. Maryland - 296-290-296=882 (+18) 3. Old Dominion - 296-293-294=883 (+19) 4.
