Parker garners TSWA award

Freshman rushed for career-high 149 yards in win at WKU

November 6, 2012 · @MTAthletics

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Middle Tennessee's Jordan Parker was named the Tennessee Sports Writers Association offensive player of the week for his effort on November 1.

Parker helped the Blue Raiders to a 34-29 victory at Western Kentucky, posting a career-high 149 yards on 32 carries and one touchdown.
The Lawrenceville, Ga., native recorded a 58-yard scoring run in the first quarter and registered 136 yards on 19

carries in the first half, as Middle Tennessee built a 17-7 advantage.

The true freshman has totaled 483 yards and two touchdowns in nine contests this season. The Blue Raiders play again November 17 at South Alabama.

Printed on April 23, 2014

Original URL: http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/63870