BLUE RAIDER FASTBREAK POINTS

- MT is one of seven schools in the country receiving votes or ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll in football, men's and women's basketball. It is the only non-AQ school in the mix, as Notre Dame, Texas, Louisville, Georgia, Stanford and UCLA comprise the group.
- The 97 points against Alabama State in the season-opener marked the most since MT scored 109 against Houston Baptist on Feb. 13, 2010.
- MT was unanimously picked to win the Sun Belt East Division this year by the league's head coaches.
- Four Blue Raiders earned preseason all-conference honors. Marcos Knight was named to the first team, JT Sulton and Bruce Massey to the second team and Raymond Cintron to the third team.
- Raymond Cintron was rated as the No. 39 shooter in the country according to CBSSports.com's Top 50 shooters.
- MT received three votes in the preseason ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and is receiving one vote in the latest poll.
- Marcos Knight scored a career-high 21 points in his home state of Georgia against the Savannah State Tigers on Nov. 13. It marked his 25th double-figure game.
- MT is off to a 2-0 start for the second year in a row, marking the first back-to-back occurrences since the 1995-96 and 1996-97 seasons.
- MT returns 10 of its top 12 scorers from last season.

SCOUTING FLORIDA

- The No. 10 Gators return eight letterwinners, including three starters, from a 26-11 squad that made the NCAA Elite Eight last year
- Florida features a pair of preseason All-SEC selections in first-teamers Kenny Boynton and Patric Young
- Florida is off to a 2-0 start, coming off a 74-56 win over No. 22 Wisconsin on Wednesday
- In their season-opener, the Gators defeated Alabama State, 84-35

- Kenny Boynton (16.0), Mike Rosario (14.5) and Patric Young (10.0) are also averaging double-figures
- Patric Young currently leads Florida in rebounding with 9.5 boards per game

LAST TIME OUT

Senior guard Marcos Knight's career-high 21 points helped Middle Tennessee overcome a 12-point first-half deficit en route to a 58-55 victory over the Savannah State Tigers at Tiger Arena on Tuesday. With MT trailing 29-23 at halftime, Knight took control of the contest, scoring 19 points in the latter frame. Playing in his home state for the first time as a Blue Raider, the Rentz, Ga., native went 10-for-10 from the free throw line and grabbed a game-high seven rebounds to go along with two steals. The telling stat was MT's 25-for-38 performance at the line. SSU was just 11-for-23. It was those free throws that proved critical down the stretch, as senior forward JT Sulton sank a pair to break up a 52-52 tie with 3:20 remaining, then senior guard Bruce Massey hit two with nine seconds remaining to give MT the final three-point cushion.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONES'

After being hampered by a back injury throughout the 2011-12 season, senior guard Jason Jones picked up where he left off from his sophomore season. Jones was a perfect 9-for-9 from the field and led the Blue Raiders with 19 points in the season-opening win against Alabama State. As a sophomore, Jones led the team in scoring and rebounding with 13.7 points and 5.4 rebounds per game.

SOLID DEBUTS

Two key newcomers wasted no time making an impact in their Blue Raider debuts against Alabama State. Junior guard Tweety Knight earned the start and collected a game-high five assists to go along with nine points and three rebounds. Junior forward Neiko Hunter came off the bench for nine points, three rebounds, two assists and a block.

HIGH SCORING

The 97 points against Alabama State on Nov. 9 marked the most since MT scored 109 against Houston Baptist on Feb. 13, 2010. MT cracked the 90 plateau twice last season, scoring 90 against Austin Peay and 94 against ULM.

AMONG THE NATION'S ELITE

MT is one of just seven schools in the country with the football, men's and women's basketball teams each currently receiving votes or ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Polls. MT represents the only non-AQ school in the mix, as Notre Dame, Texas, Louisville, Georgia, Stanford and UCLA are the only other schools to boast the accomplishment. The men's and women's basketball teams represent the only Sun Belt teams in their respective polls. It also marks the first time in Sun Belt history a school has had its football, men's and women's basketball teams receiving votes at the same time.

RECEIVING VOTES

On the heels a record-breaking season, the 2012-13 Blue Raider men's basketball team is already receiving recognition in the USA Today coaches' poll. MT, the Sun Belt's only representative in the poll, received three votes in the preseason poll after finishing 27-7 last season and received one vote in the latest poll.

A LITTLE HELP

After ranking 21st nationally in assists per game last year, MT's unselfishness has already been apparent in its first two games. The Blue Raiders had 27 assists on 33 baskets in the season-opener against Alabama State and through two games have 38 assists on 49 field goals, which means about 78 percent of field goals have come from an assist.

CINTRON RECEIVES RECOGNITION

Raymond Cintron was listed at No. 39 on CBSSports.com's Top 50 shooters for the 2012-13 season after hitting 43.2 percent of his shots from beyond the arc last season. The San Juan, Puerto Rico, native ranked sixth in the Sun Belt in 3-point shooting and was ninth with 2.0 treys per game. Overall, Cintron shot 45 percent from the field and averaged 8.4 points per game. Middle Tennessee will also face four shooters on the list throughout the 2012-13 season. Florida's Erik Murphy, Texas

Southern's Omar Strong, Belmont's Ian Clark and Tennessee State's Robert Covington were listed among the top 50.

DENDY UPDATE

The regular season is underway for former Blue Raider LaRon Dendy. The 2012 Sun Belt Player of the Year has started every game for Kolossos this year and has helped the Greek team to a 3-2 record. The Greenville, S.C., native is currently the team's leading scorer, averaging 20.0 points per game.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM 2011-12

- MT won the Sun Belt regular season championship with a 14-2 league record.
- The Blue Raiders earned an NIT bid and made it the quarterfinals, knocking off Marshall and Tennessee in the first two rounds. It marked MT's first win in the postseason since 1989, the first win over the Vols since 1988 and the first win at Tennessee in program history.
