NASHVILLE - Middle

Tennessee rallied back from a nine-point second-half deficit, ending the game on a 16-3 run to defeat the Vanderbilt Commodores 56-52 at Bridgestone Arena Friday night. The win is the Blue Raiders' fourth in their last six games against SEC programs and the first against Vanderbilt since Feb.1, 1995.

MT (9-3) jumped out to an early seven-point lead in the first half, but needed two Bruce Massey baskets to force a 31-31 halftime tie. Vanderbilt (5-5) started the second half on an 11-4 run to take a 42-35 lead with 16:11 to play. The Commodores led 49-40 with 9:57 to play when the Blue Raider defense took over. It marked MT's first lead since the 1:36 mark of the first half. The Commodores took back the lead on a Kedren Johnson jumper with 1:55 remaining, but that would be Vanderbilt's last basket of the night. Layups by Tweety Knight and Kerry Hammonds in the final minute secured the Blue Raiders' win.

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis

Opening Statement...

"I'll start off by saying how proud I am of our team. It looked like we were kind of out of it. We went small with some minutes to go. We went with four guards to try to create some pressure and havoc defensively. We tried to spread it out and tried to drive them. I think that helped. I have so much respect for Kevin (Stallings) and Vanderbilt. I think they played extremely hard. They are tough to guard. They guarded us the right way. This is a great win for our team. We hung in there. Our bench played great. Kerry Hammonds came off the bench and was just fabulous. He helped us beat Ole Miss a couple of weeks ago. I think Bruce (Massey) led us in scoring with 17. It was a great overall win against a really good SEC team."

On Friday's win over Vanderbilt...

"I think it speaks volumes for the strides that we have made for this program. It speaks volume for our fan base that came out on a holiday. I bet there were almost 2,000 students that came on a holiday break. That's hard to do anywhere in America, much less on a neutral court. These things factor in with programs building. We think we've got high major players with high major character. These wins aren't easy at all. I think our team is built from a physical standpoint to be competitive with these teams."

On why he substituted for Bruce Massey late in the game...

"I saw Bruce get tired. I don't think there is a better guard in the SEC right now than (Kedren Johnson). He's played like that in all the tapes I've watched during the past five games. (Bruce) got physically tired. I think Tweety (Knight) fresh gave us another physical guard. It was nothing about matchups. I thought Bruce was tired. Those guards were getting tired, too. Kedren Johnson made a lot of plays through the whole game."

On if his team's confidence is the reason for their recent success...

"I think there is no question that our team keeps playing with confidence. Last year we beat UT with a 15-0 run to win. Tonight, I think it was 16-3 at the end. I think our team just has toughness. They play with an air of confidence. It's not arrogance by any means. I think the practice is what builds our teams by how physical it is and how they go after it each day."

On the final few minutes of the game...

"It wasn't very pretty. We had plenty of time and a number of possessions. That's why we went small. We took our four man out and put Marcos (Knight) at the four to try to create more turnovers. We were trying to drive it at the rim."

On what the Vanderbilt win means for the program...

"You are beating the defending SEC tournament champions. I know they lost some players. They are going to win a number of SEC games. I think in the long run you hope it pays off in recruiting. I think the biggest thing is for our students and fan base, to keep hooking them and come in better numbers after the break. Those are big wins over UCLA, Ole Miss, Tennessee, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt -- that's a lot of BCS wins for our group. I hope our student body can feel proud about that."

Junior forward Kerry Hammonds

On if his big play at Ole Miss helped him in tonight's win over Vanderbilt...

"It helps getting confidence out of the game. As many reps as we get in practice and as many games we were in last year, I just look at every game the same."

On what the win over Vanderbilt means to him...

"It means a lot to me personally and to the program also. I don't remember the last time MT beat Vanderbilt. I know I haven't been a part of it. This is a really big win for us."

Senior guard Bruce Massey, Jr.

On why he has played so well against SEC competition...

"When I'm playing against big schools like SEC teams, they scout me, but they don't really guard me. Like Coach (Kermit Davis) tells me every day in practice, be smart look for your break and also make plays for others."

On what the win over Vanderbilt means to him...

"It means a lot to me. I can say so after playing them for the first time last year and losing a close one at their place. Tonight's win means a lot to our team and to the program. You can tell the fans really appreciate a win like this. Beating a team like Vandy at this point will help us get a lot more fan support going into conference play."
