If this game begins but is unable to be completed on Friday and has reached the completion of the 5th inning, it will be called final.

If Game 2 begins but is delayed and unable to resume Friday and has reached the completion of the 5th inning, it will be called final.

If Friday's games are BOTH rained out or stopped short of the 5th inning, they will be started or resumed (in order) beginning at 9am Saturday. *See schedule below.

If Game 1 does not start by 4pm but Game 2 is played to completion (5 Innings) Friday, Game 1 will be made up Saturday, beginning at 11am.

If Game 1 is completed (5 innings) and Game 2 is rained out, Game 2 will be made up Saturday, beginning at 11am.

Saturday: *If ONE game Friday is rained out, or needs to be resumed on Saturday, it will be played or resumed on Saturday beginning at 11am. The originally scheduled Saturday games will then follow at 2:30pm and 6pm. No game Saturday will begin after 10pm.

There will be approximately 30 minutes between games so long as the next game does not start prior to its designated start time.

*If BOTH games Friday are rained out or delayed prior to the 5th inning, Friday's and Saturday's games will be played in order (Games 1-4) beginning at 9am Saturday. Saturday game times will be as follows, with no game starting prior to its designated start time and no game starting after 10pm:

Game 1: 9am (College of Charleston vs. Indiana State)

Game 2: 12:30pm (MTSU vs. Auburn)

Game 3: 4pm (College of Charleston vs. Auburn)

Sunday: Due to travel schedules, Sunday's schedule will not change. Any games that are not completed (through 5 innings) by Saturday night will be considered cancelled.

If Friday's games are BOTH moved to Saturday, requiring 4 games to be scheduled Saturday, Sunday's start times will be moved back 1 hour to 11am for Game 1 and 3pm for Game 2.
