

Are you ready for "True Blue Friday"?

Everyone encouraged to wear blue this Friday

October 1, 2013 ·

MURFREESBORO - As part of the True Blue Community Initiative, the University is encouraging all Blue Raiders to participate in "True Blue Friday" on October 4. Everyone is encouraged to wear blue in support of the University as it prepares for its annual Homecoming on Saturday when the Blue Raiders host Conference USA foe East Carolina.

A host of activities are underway this week that will culminate with the football game which kicks off at 2:35 PM Saturday at Floyd Stadium. Please go to mtalumni.com for a listing of all the events.

Remember to wear blue, fly your flags, and show your support as the Blue Raiders host their first-ever Conference USA home game.
