CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. -Freshman Brett Carroll had four hits and Chuck Akers and Nate Jaggers added three each, as Middle Tennessee pounded out 14 hits in defeating Eastern Michigan, 12-9, Saturday in the Austin Peay Governors Classic at Raymond C. Hand Park. The win was the third over EMU in the last three days for the Blue Raiders after sweeping a twinbill from the Eagles on Thursday in Murfreesboro. Middle Tennessee won both of its games in the tournament and has four straight overall. Marshall Nesbitt got the scoring started early for the Blue Raiders, blasting a tworun shot over the centerfield wall in the top of the first after Akers led off with a single. With the bases loaded later in the frame, Jaggers was hit by the pitch, forcing in a run for a 3-0 Middle Tennessee advantage. Josh Archer led off the third with a walk for the Blue Raiders, and Carroll followed two batters later with a squibber in front of the plate. The Eagles scored three runs in the fourth on just two hits. Brian Bixler highlighted the inning with a two-run double just inside the rightfield line, cutting the deficit to 5-3. But the Blue Raiders exploded for six runs in the fifth, chasing Tomey from the contest.
